Pg 11 - Policy of St Paul's United Church Midland regarding Harassment and Violence in the Workplace

Introduction

Changes to Ontario's Occupational Health and Safety Act (OHSA) – effective June 15, 2010 – strengthen protections for workers from workplace violence and address workplace harassment. They define workplace violence and harassment and describe employer duties, and will apply to all workplaces covered by the OHSA.

Toronto Conference of the United Church has instituted a training program for congregations on how to apply the requirements of this new legislation. Each congregation is required to carry out the following actions:

- Create a policy for the pastoral charge
- Pass a motion adopting the policies.
- Print the policies.
- Post the policies for all workers to see.
- Send a copy of the policies to the Presbytery office.
- Identify which individual or individuals will be responsible to complete necessary surveys and documentation with regard to the Act. The Official Board of St Paul's United Church has designated the Ministry and Personnel Committee to be responsible.
- Ensure all employees and volunteers are trained regarding their rights and responsibilities. Training of employees and the M&P committee has now occurred.
- Complete the Annual Policy Review & Update form.
- Complete Safety & Security Risk Factors forms.

DEFINITIONS

Workplace Harassment is defined as:

Engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker in a workplace that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome.

Workplace Violence is defined as:

- A) The exercise of physical force by a person against a worker in a workplace that causes or could cause physical injury to the worker
- B) An attempt to exercise of physical force against a worker in a workplace that could cause physical injury to the worker.
- C) A statement or behavior that is reasonable for a worker to interpret as a threat to exercise physical force against a worker in a workplace that could cause physical injury to the worker.

Domestic Violence in the Workplace is defined as:

If an employer becomes aware or ought to reasonably aware, that domestic violence would likely expose a worker to physical injury that may occur in the workplace the employer, shall take every precaution reasonable in the circumstances for the protection of the worker.

Synopsis of the ST PAUL'S UNITED CHURCH Midland WORKPLACE HARASSMENT POLICY

St Paul's United Church, Midland takes a position of zero tolerance with regard to workplace harassment. No United Church employee or any other individual affiliated with The United Church of Canada under any circumstances is allowed to exhibit harassing behaviour toward others, including but not limited to employees, congregants, volunteers, visitors, consultants, service providers or any other third parties.

Should an employee, volunteer or congregant perpetrate an act of workplace harassment, St Paul's United Church, Midland will exercise measures in response to that person's behaviour, up to and including termination of employment, removal from office or membership, subject to any relevant requirements of The Manual of The United Church of Canada

The sub-Executive of Toronto Conference will address incidents of Workplace Harassment by responding to incident reports from individuals in pastoral charges, conducting investigations, making decisions about the validity of the report and recommending actions that St. Paul's United Church should take to promote a safe and secure work environment for all employees, volunteers and congregants.

Examples of workplace harassment can include, but are not limited to:

- Inappropriate or unwanted touching
- Intrusive invasions of personal space
- Inappropriate jokes (i.e., jokes made at the expense of others including race, gender, weight, sexual orientation, hair colour such as "dumb blond", etc.)
- Pranks
- Flirtatious comments
- Damaging personal property or threats to do so
- Vandalism
- Graffiti
- Pornographic pictures or websites
- Lewd remarks made verbally or electronically
- Shunning
- Scapegoating

- Derogatory comments that are hurtful
- Patronizing or condescending remarks or behaviour
- Humiliating comments
- Abuse of authority that undermines someone's performance or threatens his or her career
- Seductive behaviour
- Pounding the wall, desk
- Yelling
- Stalking
- Setting someone up to be unsuccessful, i.e., providing wrong instructions on purpose
- Inappropriate or unfounded threats, i.e., "If you don't come out drinking with us the company may not see you as a team player and who knows what that will do to your career."
- Extremely inappropriate emails or social networking activities affecting other workers

MEASURES - St Paul's United Church, Midland through the Ministry and Personnel Committee will ensure risk assessments are implemented and will survey and assess workplace vulnerabilities annually through safety and procedural checklists relating to harassment issues as well as employee surveys. Results from risk assessments will be reviewed and areas identified to be of concern must be reported to Toronto Conference. St Paul's United Church, Midland will take actions to address areas of risk identified in the assessments.

RESPONSE- The sub-Executive of Toronto Conference will investigate and respond to reports of harassment as well as determine actions resulting from a decision. In St Paul's United Church, Midland the Ministry and Personnel Committee will be responsible for ensuring compliance regarding form completion and procedures within each Pastoral Charge/Ministry.

Toronto Conference will contact the Complainant and Accused separately and inform them regarding the investigation process. They will provide guidelines to the complainant should they decide to file a Report of Harassment. Toronto Conference will conduct a thorough investigation.

Toronto Conference will inform the Accused and the Complainant of the judgment, support options and next steps. Employees, volunteers, congregants or others who, with good intentions, provide information about actions they believe to be harassing or potentially harassing, will not be subject to disciplinary actions or negative consequences should an investigation prove their report to be unsubstantiated. However employees or volunteers who are found to have maliciously and/or intentionally wrongfully accused an individual of workplace harassment may be subject to disciplinary action. Employees, volunteers and congregants who are found to be at risk of engaging in harassing conduct or who have engaged in violent conduct may be subject to discipline, suspension or dismissal.

REMEDIAL ACTION- The intent of this policy and procedures is to be remedial and not punitive.

Remedial action can include professional counseling, coaching or training and will consider the following factors among others:

- the degree to which the incident undermines personal dignity, work relationships and working climate;
- any record of previous offences, their nature and degree of severity;
- the effectiveness of the remedial measure in preventing repetition of the behaviour;
- the working relationship of the complainant and the harasser; and
- the effects of the harassment on the complainant

Note- Persons reporting alleged harassment is not precluded from pursuing his or her rights under the Ontario Human Rights Code (see separate Ontario Human Rights Harassment Policy). Employees and others also have the right to contact the police.
